MESSAGE FROM THE President and CEO

As I reflect upon the past twelve months, I am filled with immense gratitude and pride. Navigating the complexities of our modern business landscape is no easy feat, and yet, the resilience, hard work, and diligence of our entire community have proven once again that when we come together with a shared vision, we can achieve remarkable success.

The Burnaby Board of Trade has a long history of being an impactful organization dedicated to the betterment of the Burnaby business community. I am proud to say that we are continuing to build on this legacy as we empower our city's businesses, ensuring they have the tools, resources and connections needed to grow and prosper.

At the heart of our efforts lies our unique position as a catalyst, convener, and champion for Burnaby. As the economic development partner for the city, we aim to support economic growth by attracting new businesses, assisting emerging ones, and ensuring prosperity for all. Our strength as a trusted convener enables us to unite diverse interests and forge meaningful connections. And as champions, we amplify the voice of business, providing resources and advocating for our members' interests across all levels of government.

We recently unveiled our groundbreaking new workforce development initiative called BurnabyWorks. The challenges faced by businesses in sourcing and nurturing talent is a pressing concern, not just in Burnaby but across the greater BC business community.

Recognizing this, BurnabyWorks was born out of the necessity to approach these challenges from an ecosystem perspective. Serving as a pivotal workforce development hub, we actively collaborate with various stakeholders to grasp the needs at every level. Whether it's by equipping job seekers with skills that are in high demand or crafting employment pathways based on collective employer needs, we are committed to fostering a robust and vibrant workforce for Burnaby.

As we take on the challenges and opportunities of the coming year, I want to thank all of our members, the City of Burnaby, our partners and dedicated staff for their support and hard work.

Thank you for your tireless efforts and unwavering belief in our efforts.

With best wishes,

Paul Holden

MESSAGE FROM THE Mayor

We're ready to build a bright future for Burnaby. Earlier this year, City Council approved the most ambitious capital plan in our city's history — a $500 million investment into key infrastructure in Burnaby.

On behalf of the City of Burnaby, it is my pleasure to offer my warm greetings to the Burnaby business community.

Successful businesses are integral to the development of any successful city—not only as economic drivers, but also as community partners that help us achieve the goals and visions we set out for the future of Burnaby.

We continue to take bold steps on the major priorities for Burnaby—including climate action, transportation and housing. And we are fortunate to have the Burnaby Board of Trade providing invaluable guidance, support and assistance to our growing business community.

A few years ago, the City of Burnaby committed to ambitious targets to reduce carbon emissions. One project that we are pursuing is a District Energy System. District energy is a versatile, proven technology used in cities to transition buildings to a low-carbon, sustainable future. The city is planning to develop a district energy utility that would capture thermal energy from Metro Vancouver's Waste-to-Energy Facility and supply heat and hot water to high-density neighbourhoods in south Burnaby. We look forward to sharing more about this soon.

Burnaby has also made important strides in supporting the creation of housing that is more affordable. Construction is underway on more than 1,640 new rental units in Burnaby, and the majority of these are non-market units, making them more accessible for families, seniors and young people starting their careers.

We're also building new connections in our city which will make it easier for people to get out and explore, shop or commute to work using active transportation options. Work has already begun on the development of the Burnaby Lake Overpass, which will create a key link for pedestrians and cyclists to major destination parks and trails in Burnaby. It's just one of many new connections being built in our city.

These are exciting times for Burnaby! As a city, we are committed to working with residents, businesses and community organizations like the BBOT to ensure that we can build a thriving city where everyone can prosper.

Sincerely,

Mike Hurley

From business networking to workforce solutions: The Burnaby Board of Trade is at the forefront

As Burnaby's premier business networking, advocacy, and economic development organization, the Burnaby Board of Trade (BBOT) operates not only as a chamber of commerce but as a robust pillar in the city's evolving commerce landscape.

Born from a commitment to shaping the city's businesses, the BBOT stands unique in its dynamic approach to fostering growth. By acting as a catalyst, we facilitate transformative change, bringing to light innovative business practices and strategies that bolster economic development. We're not just the heart of business; we're its pulse, its voice, its guiding star.

Moreover, by championing the myriad voices of local businesses, we ensure that a range of perspectives can reach all levels of government. This isn't just about doing business; it's about crafting a community – and an ecosystem where every enterprise, ranging from size, can thrive.

In our partnership with the City of Burnaby, we work to create a supportive environment for businesses. Our main goal is to ensure that Burnaby provides the necessary tools and opportunities for every business to succeed.

Introducing BurnabyWorks: The Future of Workforce Development

Amid the many challenges and transitions faced by businesses today, workforce development stands paramount. Recognizing this, we recently introduced our revolutionary initiative: BurnabyWorks.

BurnabyWorks is a holistic approach to some of the most pressing workforce challenges affecting our city – and province at large. Understanding that true progress can only stem from a comprehensive, bird's-eye perspective, BurnabyWorks has set its sights on the broader ecosystem. It serves as a central hub for workforce development, where the challenges faced by both employers and job seekers are understood, addressed, and met with innovative solutions.

At its core, BurnabyWorks believes in collaboration. By forging meaningful partnerships with stakeholders throughout the ecosystem, we're aiming to bridge the all-too-familiar gaps between employers and those seeking employment. Whether it's aligning job seekers with in-demand skills and promising careers or building succinct employment pathways based on collective employer needs, BurnabyWorks is on it.

The beauty of this initiative is in its scope and inclusivity. Rather than focusing on individual employers or isolated job seekers, BurnabyWorks strives to serve the collective. It's about building a resilient network where everyone benefits, from the businesses that find their ideal candidates to the individuals who secure rewarding roles.

The Burnaby Board of Trade is more than just a chamber of commerce; it's a dedicated partner actively seeking to make a tangible difference in our community. With pioneering initiatives like BurnabyWorks, our goal is to strengthen the local business ecosystem, improve workforce development, and ensure that Burnaby remains a thriving hub for commerce. We invite all businesses to collaborate with us, ensuring a prosperous future for our vibrant community.

We are open for business

Thriving town centres, charming urban villages, a vast selection of commercial spaces and award-winning educational institutions bring businesses to Burnaby.

The City's supportive Council, its diverse and welcoming residents, and its focus on safety and climate action initiatives—from energy efficient buildings to EV charging stations—keep them here!

We welcome you to join us in calling Burnaby home.

If you have questions about doing business in Burnaby, please contact the Burnaby Board of Trade at 604-412-0100.
