

Burnaby Civic Election 2014 Candidate Questionnaire

Name: Sylvia Gung

Running for: Mayor

Biography:

I was born in Korea in 1953, just before the Korean War ended, and, a few years after I graduated high school, I moved to Canada in 1980, to Manitoba and then to BC. Living through two different cultures, I understand both fairly well.

For the most part of my life, I have lived in a deep depression and I was ashamed of myself so helpless, even with two children added later, out of my broken marriage.

However, my awareness about the miserable status of Canadian society had helped me to think differently and had lead to participate in social gatherings. Naturally, I started looking into the social issues and facts, which showed me some definite solutions as well, And I couldn't imagine myself wasting all that landed in my head; thus, I started writing letters about the situations and my findings to teachers, unions, governments and many more, who I thought it could help, but nothing happened.

And the society sees me now in open public, running for the mayor position in Burnaby..
