

an initiative of the

making business better

making business better

The Burnaby Board of Trade's “Women’s Business Success Network” (WBSN) is a group of women and men interested in supporting women at all levels of business, whether a sole entrepreneur, a small business owner, a professional or an established executive.

making business better

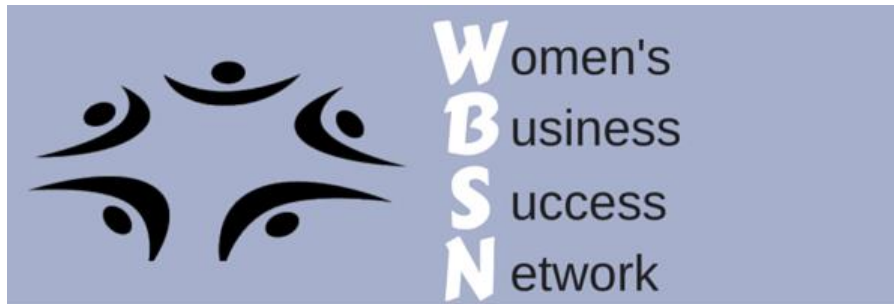

The WBSN is a member-driven group that plans events, coordinates activities and develops policy positions for the broader business community.

making business better

The mission of the WBSN is to provide a forum for:

meaningful connections and valuable networking opportunities between women and men at all levels of business;

substantive policy development and advocacy
to advance women's business success;

invaluable professional and personal development for WBSN members and volunteers;

positioning oneself at the forefront of efforts to support women's success at all levels of business

making business better

WBSN Events

Events developed by and tailored to women in business

Women's Leadership
Luncheon with Premier Christy Clark

WBSN Summer
Reception at the
Hart House

'Women Mean
Business'
panel discussion

WBSN Policy

Policy positions developed by WBSN members and adopted by the Burnaby Board of Trade

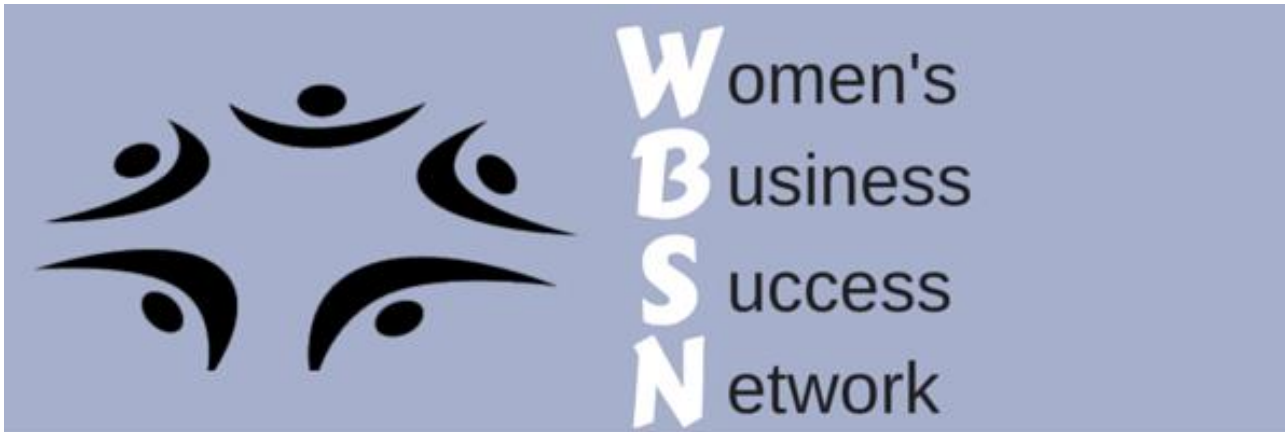

Latest policy developed: “Encouraging and Supporting More Women on Corporate Boards”

Interview with CBC Radio on WBSN Policy Position

BC Chamber of Commerce Delegates
Voting to Adopt WBSN Policy

There is no fee or charge to join the WBSN and we welcome applicants from all business sectors and sizes

Visit BBOT.ca to learn how to join the WBSN and for more information on the Burnaby Board of Trade

making business better

